

Retirement Announcement of Jo-anne Marr, President and CEO

June 25, 2024

On behalf of the Board of Directors, it is with mixed emotions that I announce the retirement of Jo-anne Marr, our esteemed President and CEO. After nine years of exceptional leadership, Jo-anne has decided to step down in the coming months to enjoy a well-deserved retirement.

I want to extend our deepest gratitude to Jo-anne for her outstanding contributions and unwavering dedication. Her visionary leadership has been instrumental in shaping our organization. From spearheading strategic planning and achieving multiple exemplary accreditations to confidently guiding us through the pandemic, rebranding our organization, and securing the future of the Uxbridge Hospital redevelopment, Jo-anne's impact has been profound and far-reaching.

Jo-anne embodies the "honoured to care" principles, consistently demonstrating compassion and commitment to everyone who works at Oak Valley Health and the patients and families that receive care here. Her legacy will undoubtedly resonate for years to come.

The Board of Directors will immediately commence the search for our next President and CEO of Oak Valley Health. Jo-anne will continue to work closely with the Board to support a smooth transition.
